OBITUARY

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. LULU KENT By Her Friend

Long time residents of Torrance were shocked late last Wednesday, to learn of the very sudden passing away of Mrs. Lulu Kent, at her home on Gramercy ave. Having had an attack of influenza recently, she had seemingly recovered sufficiently to visit several days in Los Angeles and attended a party on Tuesday evening here in Torrance.

Friends trying to arouse her on Wednesday summoned her son, Earl, and entering, found her in bed, passed away in sleep. Born in Winfield, Kansas, where she grew up and married Henry E. Kent; and two children were born. Shortly before coming to California in 1922, the daughter died. Mrs. Kent then trained as a nurse and was employed in several hospitals.

Her character was one of outstanding patriotism, courage in the face of much illness, kindly deeds, civic interest in all worthy matters pertaining to the welfare of this city. She will be greatly missed by many Torrance residents.

Immediate survivors are a son, Earl P. Kent, 2007 Gramercy, ave.; two grandsons, Earl Jr. and Marvin, both of whom are now in service; a niece in Los Angeles, and the families of a brother and sister, in Kansas. Services were conducted by Rev. Ben Lingenfelter at Stone & Myers on Friday. The body was escorted to Kansas by her son and his wife, to rest beside her daughter and husband, who died in 1931. A closing service was held in Kansas on Tuesday.

MARY PRICILLA WHITE

Mary Pricilla White, 70, 4907 Torrance blvd., died at her home, at 9 a.m., Feb. 27. Cause of her death is unknown. Mrs. White was born Sept. 7, 1874, moved here in 1942. Survivors are Irvine S. White, brother; Harold L. White, a son; five grandchil-

MEETINGS CONTINUE . . .
The revival meetings at the Baptist church continue with Rev. Paul K. Whiteaker bringing old time Gospel messages to a full auditorium every night. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mills, noted musicians, are playing the Victor-Theramin, the world's most mysterious instrument, every night. This instrument is played without being touched in any manner.

Alondra Park Community Tree Planting Asked

With the thought in mind of furthering the development of Alondra park, on which the county contemplates spending approximately $40,000 between now and July 1, Supervisor Raymond V. Darby has contacted various civic organizations and service clubs in Gardena, Hawthorne, Lawndale, Redondo Beach and Torrance, suggesting that each organization undertake the planting of a group of trees in the park.

It was Darby's thought that the Arbor Day ceremonies accompanying the planting might take place some time during the month of May, thus initiating the development of this long needed park in the southwest section of the county.

Services were held at the Baptist church by Rev. C. M. Northrup. Burial under direction of Stone and Myers at Inglewood cemetery.

OTHER DEATHS
Barbara Reynolds, 14.

33 Members in New Lions Club Of Torrance

Thirty-three members in 33 days.

Such was the quick growth of the Torrance Lions Club born at a meeting of local business and professional men on Feb. 9.

President Harry B. Lewis announced at the meeting Tuesday noon in Civic Auditorium that new members received in the past week are Frank A. Bland, Beacon Drug Co., pharmacist; Eddie Navaz, of Ideal Ranch meat department; James W. Alford, of City Taxi Co. The charter membership is being held open until Tuesday night, March 20, when the Lions Club will hold its charter, night dinner dance at Palos Verdes Country Club. Lions International officers will be present, as well as members and their wives from clubs throughout the county.

At Tuesday's meeting, Dr. Hugh Tiner, president of Pepperdine College, spoke on "The New Era Changes the Service Clubs," and declared that the present world condition presents the greatest opportunity yet known for clubs to do a service to mankind.

Guests at the meeting included Clarence P. Manion, special representative of Lions International; Mayor W. H. Tison; George L. Johnson, the Rev. Paul M. Wheeler.

Mrs. Nervig to Return Home Soon

Mrs. Newman E. Nervig, the former Miss Frances Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Skinner of Culver street, was visiting her mother yesterday from Gainesville, Tex., where she is visiting her husband, Corporal Nervig, saying that she would be home soon.
